www.NCMAHI.ORG

Mr. Prufer has been in the federal and international Contract Management field for over forty years.

Commensurate with high level of management skills he accomplished in the federal government acquisition arena the following: Bid processes and procedures, Contract Formation, Qualification, Competition, solicitation and negotiation of firm fixed price procurement, Contract Pricing, Small Business, Terms and Conditions and Quality Control procedures. He is familiar with the FAR and Federal Statutes. His staff included specialists in Grants and Small Business at the American Science and Engineering Company, Cambridge, Massachusetts. Mr. Prufer excelled in Contract Disputes settlements both at the Contracting Officer's level and the Armed Services Board of Contracts Appeal. Mr. Prufer has vast experience in International Commerce where risk assessment was often times his assigned task by large corporations and clients. His focus on negotiations of complex multimillion dollar construction, undersea cable system and telecommunication undertakings led to awards of multimillion dollar contracts to GTE International Corp.
